

FOR IMMEDIATE REPORTING

PRESS RELEASE

DEPUTY PRIME MINISTER AND MINISTER FOR ENERGY, TRADE AND INDUSTRY (TRADE) GAN KIM YONG TO VISIT INDIA TO STRENGTHEN BILATERAL ECONOMIC COOPERATION

Deputy Prime Minister (DPM) and Minister for Energy, Trade and Industry (Trade) Gan Kim Yong will visit India from 13 to 15 October 2026. The visit will reaffirm Singapore's longstanding and multifaceted bilateral relationship with India.

2. DPM/Minister(Trade) Gan will be in New Delhi on 13 and 14 October 2026, where he will participate in the 8th Bloomberg New Economy (BNE) Forum and speak on a panel on how countries are moving towards self-sufficiency globally. DPM/Minister(Trade) Gan is a member of the BNE Advisory Board. He will also meet with senior government officials and business leaders on the sidelines of the forum.

3. DPM/Minister(Trade) Gan will be in Chennai on 15 October 2026. As India's second-largest state economy and a major industrial hub, Tamil Nadu is an important economic partner for Singapore, with Singapore companies active across sectors including manufacturing, infrastructure, renewable energy, real estate and digital services. DPM/Minister(Trade) Gan will engage business leaders from Chennai and Singapore businesses. He will also meet ITE Education Services (ITEES) who are implementing the National Centre of Excellence (NCOE) for Advanced Manufacturing, a bilateral project under the Singapore Cooperation Programme.

4. DPM/Minister(Trade) Gan will be accompanied by officials from the Ministry of Energy, Trade and Industry, the Economic Development Board and Enterprise Singapore.
