Ministry of Law

The Ministry of Law's Legal Group (comprising the Legal Policy Group, International & Advisory Group and Legal Industry Group) steers policy and legislative reforms to uphold the rule of law, strengthen access to justice, and ensure a sound, progressive legal framework, as well as develops Singapore's legal industry to strengthen Singapore's position as an international legal and dispute resolution hub.

Expectations/ Scope of Internship	Interns will assist in various projects and initiatives, and undertake research and policy analysis on domestic and international legal policy. This will cover areas such as civil and criminal justice, family law, litigation funding, restructuring and insolvency, legal industry, land, intellectual property, community legal services, and international legal policy. Interns can expect to embark on rigorous legal research and analysis, study developing trends and practices in other countries, assist with statistical collation and analysis, undertake cross-jurisdictional comparative studies, and experience the application of such knowledge to policymaking in practice.
Eligibility	2nd – 4th year law students.
Period of Internship	Choose between either one of the two windows available: i) May 2027 – Aug 2027 ii) Dec 2027 – Feb 2028
Duration	4 weeks. All applicants who wish to be shortlisted for an internship must be able to commit to the full period/duration of the internship.
