Legal Services Division, Ministry of Manpower

Expectations/ Scope of Internship	As an intern, you will experience the work of a Prosecuting Officer and a Legal Associate (Civil). For Prosecution-related work, you may be preparing court documents and assessing legal representations from defence counsel. You may observe and potentially assist in court proceedings (mentions and trials) on an informal basis. For Civil-related work, you may be tasked to conduct legal research on a range of topics (including employment laws), draft legal advice, vet agreements or MOUs, observe work injury compensation proceedings, and sit in for meetings or discussions relating to the development of policies and legislation. You will also have the opportunity to work on AI-related knowledge management, legal advisory tools, and other functions that support MOM's work.
Eligibility	1st to 4th year law students. Applicants should have completed a course in criminal law and contract law.
Period of Internship	Choose between either one of the two windows available: i) May 2027 – Sep 2027 ii) Dec 2027 – Feb 2028
Duration	4 weeks. All applicants who wish to be shortlisted for an internship must be able to commit to the full period/duration of the internship.
