

IMPETUS

PEOPLE IN PARTNERSHIPS AND ENGAGEMENT

SPOTLIGHT ▶▶▶

“ We will launch a new $50 million SG Partnerships Fund. This is to catalyse ground-up initiatives and help them build sustained capabilities and impact. ”

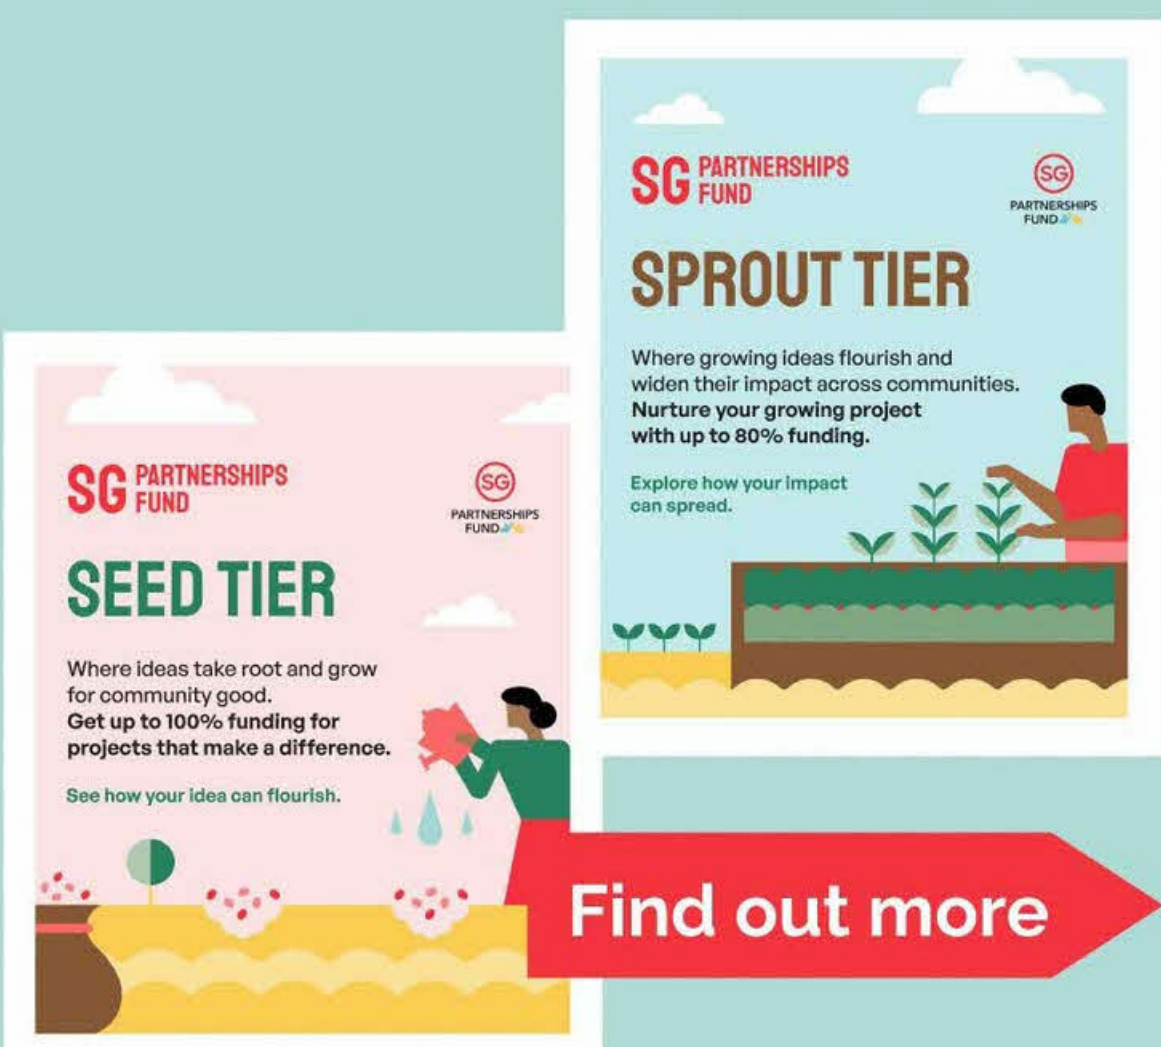

Prime Minister and Minister for Finance,
Lawrence Wong

Launch of SG Partnerships Fund from 1 Apr 2026

The Fund catalyses citizen actions and widens the circle of impact, by providing stronger support to citizen-led projects across all domains, from nascent ideas to longer-term initiatives with larger impact.

Introducing three funding tiers — Seed for new ideas and pilots, Sprout for individuals or ground-ups or SG-registered organisations to grow your impact, and Scale for SG-registered organisations to deliver sector-wide change.

Find out more

Singapore Government Partnerships Office 2nd Anniversary ▶▶▶

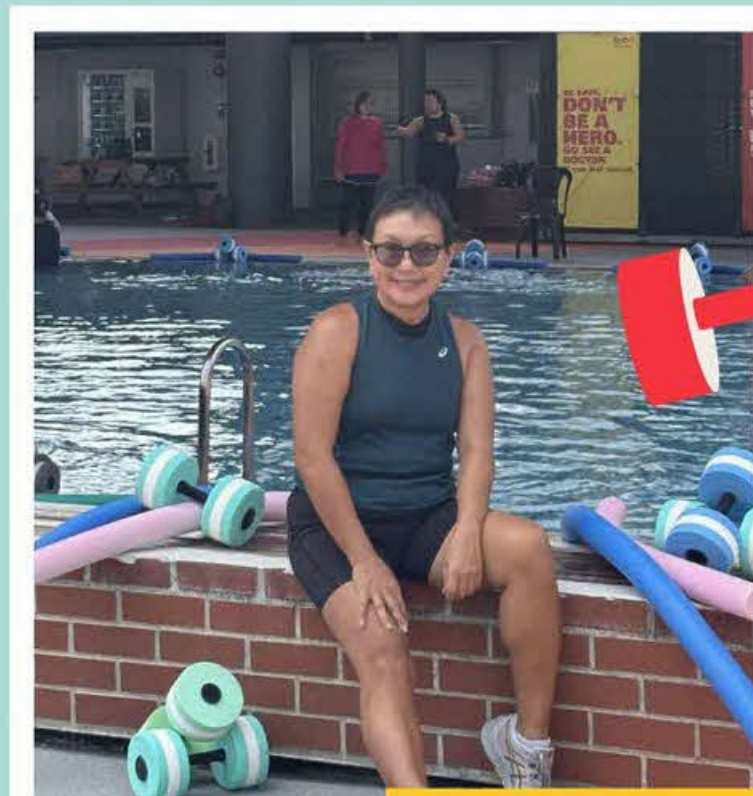

The Singapore Government Partnerships Office (SGPO) was launched in 2024 to strengthen the government's partnerships and engagements with citizens. We provide project guidance, funding, resources and connections to turn ideas into actions. Over the past two years, we've witnessed the incredible potential when citizens and government collaborate for community good. Thank you for the collaboration and trust.

INSPIRING STORIES ▶▶▶

From consulting to teaching aqua fitness

Poh Leng, a breast cancer survivor, submitted a proposal to SGPO on the Partners Portal. SGPO saw potential in her aqua fitness project and supported her, in turn, helping many seniors to stay active.

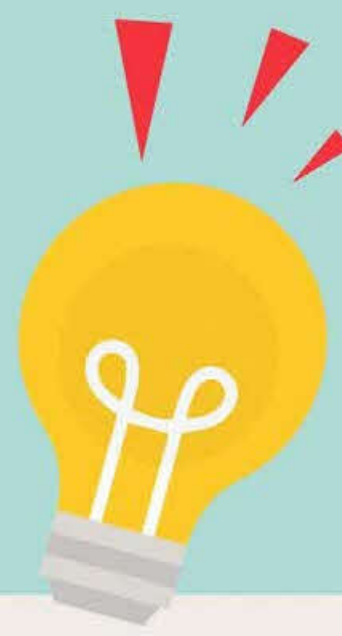

Read more

Read more

Child-led project: Kaizen (7) and Kay (9) of Little Hands, Big Hearts

Discover how two young siblings turned monthly acts of kindness into a growing community of families making a difference - one mission at a time.

SGPO DIGITAL FOOTPRINTS ▶▶▶

60 seniors, 1 Marathon

Dr Tan submitted a proposal to SGPO and brought 60 seniors together for a marathon. SGPO connected him with Antica Foundation for support. When citizens and partners collaborate, meaningful community impact follows.

View video

View video

CNA interview with Hasliza Ahmad, Director, SGPO

Over 1,600 community proposals were received by SGPO and government agencies last year. From a board game helping children explore Singapore, to a sustainable fashion project bridging generations — these are ground-up ideas to build a better society.