Discover how a career in Army Medical Services as a Military Medical Expert

ANYTHING BUT REGULAR

ABOUT ARMY MEDICAL SERVICES

The Singapore Army Medical Services provides medical services to all Army personnel and treats the injured on the battlefield through our various echelons of medical care. Army Medical Services aims to be a world-class Army Medical Service that is Ready in Peace, Resilient in War, Respected by All. We will provide excellent and comprehensive healthcare to our servicemen and optimise their combat performance over the full spectrum of operations.

ABOUT MILITARY MEDICAL EXPERT

The Military Medical Expert's role is more than a nurse in the hospital or a paramedic in the ambulance. During the span of your career, you will hold a variety of appointments that will stretch your potential to the fullest. You will become a specialist and an expert in your field. You will be a manager and a planner. You will be a commander of the men and women under your charge — inspiring others as a teacher, a mentor and a role model.
