Our Goals

1. Goals

Sar-El leadership adopted as its achievement of the following goals:

- Contribute to the promotion of Jewish continuity.
- Create a cultural and educational exchange between the diaspora and Israel.
- Partner with all supporters of Israel in a mutually beneficial experience.

2. Methods

Sar-El proposes to achieve its goals by encouraging volunteers from around the world to come to Israel for a number of weeks to experience the following:

- Working in I.D.F. warehouses.
- Guided tours of interesting locations in Israel.
- Lectures on Jewish and Israeli topics.

3. Benefits

Sar-El is proud to note that the program provides many additional benefits to include the following:

- Promotes Aliyah
- Fosters new friendships
- Contributes to Israel's economy
- Creates ambassadors of goodwill for Israel.

- Create meaningful opportunities for Diaspora Jews and friends of Israel to contribute to the country, fostering deep connections with the Jewish people and our homeland.
- Inspire and cultivate a new generation of volunteers, while strengthening Jewish identity and ties to Israel among Diaspora teens and young adults who join the program.
- Provide high-quality logistical support to the Israel Defense Forces, driven by the dedication and motivation of our volunteers from around the world.
- Encourage participants to lead, promote, and engage in initiatives that support the State of Israel, both at home and abroad.

Sar-EI is deeply committed to supporting the IDF and volunteers are not just supporters; they stand at the forefront of our efforts, working side by side with soldiers on IDF bases. This partnership creates a unique and unparalleled volunteer experience, where every individual has the opportunity to make a tangible impact.

Volunteers from all corners of the globe come together, united by a shared purpose: to safeguard Israel and ensure the security of the Jewish people. This mission transcends borders, bringing together individuals from diverse backgrounds who share a common goal. Through their work, Sar-EI volunteers actively contribute to the fulfillment of this mission, playing a crucial role in Israel's defense and well-being.

The bonds formed through Sar-EI are forged in shared purpose and commitment, creating a sense of camaraderie that is both deep and enduring. Volunteers not only give their time and effort but also gain a profound sense of belonging and connection to Israel and its people. This experience is not just about service; it's about building relationships, understanding, and a lifelong commitment to the values that Sar-EI represents. Through their dedication, volunteers become part of something much larger than themselves—a global community bound by a deep and meaningful sense of purpose.
