From Shy to Shining

Once a shy teenager, Jolene has blossomed into a confident youth, driven by a passion for connection and impact. Her event management studies have been instrumental, pushing her beyond her comfort zone to cultivate strong communication and stress management skills. As a Digital Marketing intern at a social enterprise, she immersed herself in social media strategy, heritage archival research, and cultural tour development, demonstrating her versatility and commitment to cultural preservation.

Beyond academics, Jolene finds creative expression through photography, a cherished hobby and CCA since secondary school. Her ability to find beauty in the ordinary translates seamlessly into her dedication to community service. She shared her photographic skills by teaching participants at the 15th Seniors' Learning Camp and assisted elderly residents with redeeming online vouchers during the launch of the Community Development Council Voucher Scheme 2024.

Recognised for her leadership potential, Jolene contributed actively to her school community, serving as President of Writers' Room and Vice-President of the Photography Club. Her dedication and multifaceted talents make her a true role model.

From the Heart

"Things get so much better when you enjoy what you are doing. It shifts your mindset and experiences, including studying. I believe this is our moment to explore and experiment so that in future, we would not have any regrets. That is what keeps me motivated in ITE and in all aspects of my life."

Life after ITE

Jolene is pursuing a Diploma in Business at Temasek Polytechnic.
