

New Board Member to Singapore Totalisator Board (Tote Board)

Colonel Yew Chee Leung (姚志龙)
Assistant Chief of General Staff (Personnel), Army
Ministry of Defence

COL Yew Chee Leung joined the Singapore Armed Forces (SAF) in 1995 and commissioned as an Armoured Infantry Officer with the Sword of Merit in the same year. Prior to his present appointment, COL Yew served as Commander of an Armoured Brigade.

COL Yew was awarded the Military Training Award to pursue his undergraduate studies at the United States Military Academy at West Point. Subsequently, he was awarded the SAF Merit Scholarship. In 2000, he graduated as an honour graduate (first class honours) with a Bachelor of Science in Mechanical Engineering. Thereafter, COL Yew received the Rhodes scholarship to further his studies in Oxford University where he graduated with a Master of Arts in Politics and Economics in 2002. In 2013, he received the SAF Overseas Postgraduate Scholarship where he graduated with a Master of Science under the Sloan Fellows Program at Stanford University.

COL Yew's distinguished military career has seen him hold various key appointments in the Singapore Armed Forces. These include Commanding Officer of an Armoured Regiment, Head Operations in HQ Armour. Concurrently, he is Alternate Director on the board of ST Electronics.

In recognition of his outstanding services, COL Yew was awarded the Public Administration Medal (Bronze) (Military) in 2015 and the SAF Long Service and Good Conduct (15 years) Medal in 2012.

COL Yew is happily married to Emilia Tng and has 1 son and 2 daughters. He enjoys running, reading and spending quality time with his family.