New SDC Board Member

Ms Tan Shiao Ling,
Adele
Deputy Chief
Executive Officer &
Chief Planner
Urban Redevelopment Authority (URA)

Ms Adele Tan is the Deputy Chief Executive Officer & Chief Planner of the Urban Redevelopment Authority (URA). She oversees the Strategic Planning, Physical Planning, Architecture & Urban Design, Conservation & Urban Design and Design & Planning Lab Groups in URA. Ms Adele Tan will be appointed as Chief Executive Officer of URA with effect from 1 September 2026.

Adele has undertaken various portfolios within and outside URA. This includes leading departments in Strategic Planning, Physical Planning and Development Services. She was also seconded to the National Parks Board as Director (Corporate Development) and the Ministry of National Development (Strategic Planning).

As URA's Group Director for Strategic Planning in URA between 2017 and 2022, she led the team in the Long-Term Plan Review. This entailed understanding Singapore's land requirements, and overseeing the review of land use planning policies to optimise land, meet Singapore's diverse economic, social and environmental needs, and address future challenges.

Adele was seconded to MND as Chief Infrastructure Planning Officer (CIPO) from January 2023 to June 2024, to optimise planning and development of major infrastructure across agencies and ensure that our infrastructure is well-maintained and future-ready.

Most recently, as Chief Planner at URA, she oversaw URA's Draft Master Plan Review 2025, which involved widespread public engagement reaching 220,000 Singaporeans through exhibitions, surveys and focus group discussions.

Adele graduated Magna Cum Laude from Princeton University with a Bachelor of Science in Engineering (Civil Engineering & Operations Research) in 1997. She subsequently obtained a Master in Public Administration from Harvard University in 2008.
