WORKING AT MTI

Rewarding and Challenging Career

Be at the forefront of shaping Singapore's vibrant economy! Join us to create exciting opportunities and good jobs for all. Together with our statutory boards, we create a thriving business environment. Come steer the growth of our companies and industries, spur innovation and R&D, and manage our land and energy resources effectively.

Travel the world to unlock new markets for our companies to venture abroad, discover new trade potential, and open up more opportunities for Singapore. Expect to be challenged and stretched, broadening your perspectives while working with passionate and driven people to make a difference.

Great People, Collaborative Culture

You will join a talented and dynamic team of individuals with a passion to achieve MTI's mission of promoting economic growth and creating good jobs and opportunities for all. Our working environment is one which is open, supportive, and collaborative to achieve results. Faced with an ever-changing geopolitical landscape, increasing economic competition and tight resource constraints, our officers constantly come up with innovative solutions to challenge current norms and constraints to blaze new trails.

You will be empowered to propose solutions to Senior Management in an open and supportive environment. Working in MTI also opens up opportunities for you to collaborate with subject experts from Statutory Boards, local and foreign government agencies, and private sector business groups.

CAREER PATHS AT MTI

Trade

Unique opportunity to play a crucial role in strengthening Singapore's external economic relations through trade negotiations, economic diplomacy and strategic project development. As a Trade Officer, you will analyse key developments and their implications, formulate strategies, design policies, develop economic-related partnerships and agreements such as Free Trade Agreements (FTAs) and Digital Economy Agreements (DEAs), to drive meaningful outcomes. You will also represent Singapore in bilateral engagements, and on regional and multilateral platforms, and engage in strategic relationship management. As the global economy evolves, you ensure Singapore's economic relevance, and continued integration into global supply chains and the region.

Industry

As an Industry Officer, you will work closely with Firefly agencies and industry stakeholders to build a growing economy, sustained by productive industries and firms, that generate jobs and growing wages for Singaporeans. You will formulate strategies and policies, in areas such as investment attraction, research and innovation, growing our local enterprises, building a vibrant lifestyle/tourism hub, unlocking land and manpower resources for economic growth, and transforming our sectors and firms to be more productive. Your efforts will contribute to a competitive, innovative and sustainable economy, well-equipped to navigate the complexities of the global economic landscape.

Energy and Carbon

Lead initiatives to reduce emissions and drive the transition to a low-carbon economy, while ensuring energy security and cost-competitiveness. As an officer working in the Energy and Carbon cluster, you will develop carbon markets and plan energy infrastructure. You will also develop and advance cross-border electricity trading projects, assess, build enablers and develop pilots to harness low-carbon energy sources, and decarbonise our industrial activities to meet our international climate commitments. Lastly, you will also get to collaborate with various stakeholders to support sustainable economic transformation and green growth through strategic planning, policy analysis, as well as partnerships with industry and international stakeholders.

Economist Service (ES)

Keep a close watch on global and domestic developments and analyse their impact on Singapore's economy. As a public-sector economist, you will apply sound economic principles and quantitative techniques to analyse economic and social policies.

Corporate

Play a critical role in enhancing the effectiveness and efficiency of MTI through functional areas of expertise — Human Resources, Finance, Corporate Communications, Information Technology (IT), Corporate Administration and Internal Audit.

GROWING WITH MTI

CAREER DEVELOPMENT

Opportunities Abound

At MTI, we are committed to developing our officers. Our career development framework offers a wide range of foundational and customised courses and programmes.
