

TRAINING AND ADULT EDUCATION ITM 2025

An innovative and responsive Training and Adult Education sector that delivers quality lifelong learning and partners the industry in workforce development.

A Improve Industry-relevance and Market Responsiveness of Training

- Build on existing partnerships and support more public-private collaborations to tighten nexus between enterprises and training partners
- Improve aggregation of training demand across sectors and promote skills recognition and credentialling

B Innovate and Digitalise at Scale

- Scale up development of innovative adult training practices through the Innovative Learning 2.0 initiative
- Intensify research translation and adoption of improved andragogical practices through the Institute for Adult Learning as the National Centre of Excellence for Adult Learning

C Invest in Adult Educators and Sectoral Capabilities

- Better support professional development and career progression of adult educators
- Develop skills in EdTech, workplace learning and career coaching

D Internationalise to Raise Sector Resilience

- Support the export of Continuing Education and Training from high quality and market-ready training partners to overseas markets

