Question 1: MTI seeks comments on:

- (i) The proposed appointment of SPRING as the administering agency for the CPFTA.
- (ii) As the administering agency, SPRING will be empowered to conduct investigations and gather evidence before filing injunction applications with the courts.

- (iii) Retailers who persist in unfair practices despite CASE and STB's efforts will be referred to SPRING and subjected to further investigations.

Question 2: MTI seeks comments on:

- (i) The proposal for the Courts to be allowed to require the entities and individuals under injunction orders to notify the appointed administering agency when there are changes such as these examples below.
- (a) Entities: Changes such as premises or number of premises, internet address or number of internet addresses, and/or conversion from a firm/company to a limited liability partnership.
- (b) Individuals: Changes in employment status, directorship, and/or partnership related to business as a supplier.
