

Singapore-ICAO Developing Countries Training Programme Fellowships 2026/2027

Singapore and ICAO established the Developing Countries Training Programme (DCTP) in 2001. Sponsored by the Singapore Government and in partnership with ICAO, the DCTP has been renewed for another three years from May 2025 to March 2028. It provides 330 Fellowships and 10 Scholarships to government officials from eligible developing ICAO Member States to attend specialised training programmes conducted by Singapore Aviation Academy (SAA).

From April 2026 to March 2027, 110 Fellowships will be available. Fellowships are offered for SAA courses listed in the table below. Each fellowship covers course fees, hotel accommodation and daily allowance. Details of the individual courses can be found at <https://saa.caas.gov.sg>. Please note that all courses are held in-person and course dates may be subject to change.

Who should apply

Government officials:

- who have received endorsement by your reporting officer and Director-General of Civil Aviation or equivalent. States should nominate only one applicant per course to enable more States to benefit from the DCTP.
- whose job qualifications/work portfolios are relevant to the course applied for.

When and how to apply

The application deadline for each course is 16 weeks before the course start date. Fellowship applications should be submitted online via this application link.

Documents required

Nomination form endorsed by your direct reporting officer (Part 1) and the Director-General of Civil Aviation or equivalent (Part 2). Please download a copy of the nomination form here.

How do I know I am successful in my application?

Applicants will be informed of the outcome of their application 12 weeks before the course start date. Successful applicants will receive an Award Letter via email and need to confirm acceptance of the Award.

Entry and visa requirements

Please ensure that:

- your passport has at least six months' validity beyond the date of your intended stay.
- you have a valid entry visa for Singapore and relevant transit visas for your travel, if required. Please also bring a copy of the Award Letter to Singapore to facilitate immigration clearance.
