

BREAKOUT SESSION 1 (1035 – 1155)

	Clinical Practice and Research Theme: Modelling and Methods (Zhongshan 1)	Community Health and Engagement Theme: Working with Key Populations (Zhongshan 2)	Policy and National Initiatives Theme: National initiatives pertaining to HIV, Hepatitis and STI (Balestier Ballroom)
1040 – 1100	Ms Eleanor Ong Saw Swee Hock School of Public Health National University of Singapore Making Meaning at the Margins: An Interpretative Phenomenological Analysis of Adverse Childhood Experiences and Substance Use Among Sexual and Gender Minorities in Singapore	Ms Raksha Mahtani Board President Project X Ms Sherry Sherqueshaa Vice President Project X Displaced Demand, Displaced Care: Navigating Shifting Spaces in the Sex Industry and Changing Community Interventions Around Sexual Health in Singapore	Mr Robin Lee Deputy Director Training and Education Division Communicable Diseases Agency From Billboards to Browsers: How an Integrated HIV Testing Campaign Transformed HIV Testing Uptake
1100 – 1120	Dr Carmen Low Assistant Director National Public Health Laboratory Communicable Diseases Agency How Recency Testing is Used in Singapore and What it Means for the HIV Epidemic in Singapore	Mr Gerard Wong Manager, Partnerships HCSA Community Services Mr Brendan Robert Don Educate, Test, Treat! Administrative Assistant HCSA Community Services HCSA Educate, Test, Treat! Eliminating HCV Among Former Drug Offenders	Dr Isabel Tavitian-Exley Principal Public Health Officer (Epidemiology) Advanced Methods and Analytics Division Communicable Diseases Agency Leveraging Data Insights to Enhance HIV and STI Prevention in Key Populations in Singapore: Accelerating Progress Towards 95-95-95 targets

1120 – 1140	Asst Prof Keisuke Ejima Assistant Professor Lee Kong Chian School of Medicine Nanyang Technological University Mathematical Modelling Frameworks for Emerging and Established Infections: Lessons for HIV, Hepatitis, and STIs	Mr Arun Kumar Programme Manager Enhanced HIV Programme National Centre for Infectious Diseases Promoting Inclusivity in HIV Care	Adj Asst Prof Dr Wong Chen Seong Director HIV-Hepatitis-STI Division Communicable Diseases Agency Advancing HIV, Hepatitis and STI Control in Singapore: National Initiatives and the Road Ahead
1140 – 1155 Q&A	Moderator: Dr Alvin Han Assistant Director (Biostats and Modelling) Advanced Methods & Analytics Division Communicable Diseases Agency	Moderator: Adj Assoc Prof Martin Chio Senior Consultant Dermatologist National Skin Centre (NSC)	Moderator: Adj Asst Prof Dr Wong Chen Seong Director HIV, Hepatitis, and STI Division Communicable Diseases Agency