

The story follows a family of rats whose peaceful life changes when Father Rat discovers a forbidden place and begins coming home late. Through his children's innocent eyes, we see his tales of magical journeys to the moon – but his nightly visits to a mysterious riverbank lead him further and further away from his dear family.

An artwork from an animated short video adapted from DrugFreeSG Essay Competition 2024 (Special Award)

Scan the QR Code to watch the full video.

