Key Points

- The launch of the ScamShield Suite marks the expansion of ScamShield from an app to a suite of four anti-scam resources.
- The anti-scam resources include:
 - A 24/7 ScamShield helpline (1799), for people to call to check if something is a scam;
 - An enhanced ScamShield app that can block, detect and check scams;
 - The ScamShield website (www.scamshield.gov.sg), a one-stop portal on scams; and
 - The ScamShield Alert social channels (WhatsApp and Telegram).

ASEAN PLUS JAPAN MINISTERIAL MEETING TRANSNATIONAL CRIME CONSULTATION

29 AUGUST 2024, VIEN XIANE, LAO PDR

ASEAN Member States Discuss Response to Transnational Crime

MOS Sun urged ASEAN to stand united and intensify efforts to deal with evolving threats.

Click to read more >>

Key Points from MOS's Speech:

- Transnational crime continues to pose a threat to the region. The Meeting is an important platform for ASEAN Member States (AMS) to discuss their collective response to these threats.
- Scams and cybercrime, illicit drug trafficking and terrorism continue to be Singapore's key concerns.
- Singapore is organising the ASEAN Senior Officials Roundtable on Cybercrime next month and will discuss the implementation of the ASEAN Cybercrime Roadmap.
- Close cooperation among AMS's internal security and intelligence agencies is also crucial in the fight against transnational terrorism.
