HSA UPDATES NO. 2/2022

HSA ALERTS ON FAKE HSA ACCOUNT ON FACEBOOK

The Health Sciences Authority (HSA) wishes to alert members of the public to a fake account on Facebook bearing the name “HSA” and displaying the HSA logo. HSA currently does not use a Facebook account.

2 The fake account carries grammatical errors in its post that advertises a certain service. This service claims: “No medication or surgery, completely recovery of arthritis, sciatica, neck pain and waist pain” and “say goodbye to lumbar disc herniation, cervical spondylosis, waist and leg pain”. Refer to the Annex for a picture of the fake account.

3 Facebook has been informed and the fake account has been removed.

4 HSA does not and will not advertise such services. Members of the public are advised not to respond to accounts or posts on Facebook that carry such claims, or click on any links on such accounts.

▪ About the Health Sciences Authority (HSA)

The Health Sciences Authority (HSA) applies medical, pharmaceutical and scientific expertise through its three professional groups, Health Products Regulation, Blood

Services and Applied Sciences, to protect and advance national health and safety. HSA is a multidisciplinary authority. It serves as the national regulator for health products, ensuring they are wisely regulated to meet standards of safety, quality and efficacy. As the national blood service, it is responsible for providing a safe and adequate blood supply. It also applies specialised scientific, forensic, investigative and analytical capabilities in serving the administration of justice. For more details, visit <http://www.hsa.gov.sg/>.
