MORE THAN FINANCE YOU'RE SHAPING A NATION

Forge the future with the PSC Public Finance Scholarship

As a PSC scholar at MOF, every decision you make ripples through the lives of Singaporeans and beyond. From policies that uplift lives to budgets that build futures, your work will make an impact that goes far beyond spreadsheets. And you won't be going at it alone — you'll thrive in a culture that's supportive, empowering, and deeply invested in your growth. Because here, you're not just crunching numbers. You're investing in capabilities, safeguarding what matters, and shaping change that lasts across generations.

I believe in the quiet, steady work that builds resilience. When crises strike, it's the planning, prudence, and hard calls made years ago that carry us through. That's the impact I aim for.

I work with integrity and curiosity, digging deeper for insights that matter. By being clear and open, I help build stronger systems for Singapore — and show how local action, lifelong learning, and care can spark global change.

Making a difference starts with purpose, people, and seeing the big picture. I've learned that careful choices bring lasting value. It's not just numbers — it's lives. Good policies can shape a better, kinder future for all.

MOF's mission is to create a better Singapore through Finance. As a forward-looking organisation, we advance leading ideas, drive synergies across Government, and ensure fiscal prudence and sustainability.

Our work is anchored by three strategic outcomes:

- Stewardship of Public Good — to achieve resource sustainability through optimally managed balance sheet
- Inclusive and Sustainable Growth — to make sound public investment for a resilient and green future, enable a pro-growth environment, and support socially equitable policies
- High Performance Government — to build an accountable and future-ready Government through strong Finance, Procurement and Programme Evaluation capabilities
