A. Questions on Eligibility Criteria

1. Why are fresh graduates not eligible for SkillsFuture Fellowships?

The SkillsFuture Fellowship recognises Singapore Citizens who have acquired deep skills through years of work experience and are deeply committed to contributing to the skills development of others. SkillsFuture Fellows will serve as role models to encourage other Singaporeans to pursue and achieve skills mastery in their fields.

Fresh graduates may consider other initiatives such as the SkillsFuture Work-Study Post-Diploma Programmes (formerly known as SkillsFuture Earn and Learn Programme) at (<http://www.skillsfuture.sg/wspostdip>). Individuals who wish to switch careers can also tap on the Professional Conversion Programmes (PCPs).

2. Can recipients of the SkillsFuture Study Award apply for the SkillsFuture Fellowships?

SkillsFuture Study Award recipients must complete the courses supported under the SkillsFuture Study Award before they can apply for the SkillsFuture Fellowships. Past SkillsFuture Study Award recipients are welcomed to apply for the SkillsFuture Fellowships and applications would be subjected to evaluation.

3. Are there any restrictions on the industry that I work for, in order to be eligible for SkillsFuture Fellowships?

No. The SkillsFuture Fellowships are open to Singapore Citizens from all industries.

SkillsFuture Fellowships Frequently Asked Questions

4. Is there an age limit to be eligible for SkillsFuture Fellowships?

The SkillsFuture Fellowships are for Singapore Citizens with at least 10 years of working experience in the same (or related) industry or job functions. Candidates would typically be mid-career individuals. All Singapore Citizens who meet the eligibility criteria are welcome to apply.

5. Are Public Officers eligible for SkillsFuture Fellowships?

No. The Public Service is committed towards the skills deepening of public officers and government agencies offer a range of training and development schemes to support the skills upgrading of public officers. Public officers are encouraged to approach their HR officers to find out more about public service awards such as the Exemplary SkillsFuture@Public Service Award.

6. Can I receive SkillsFuture Fellowships more than once?

No. This is to give opportunities to applicants who have not received the award, so that more Singapore Citizens can benefit from the initiative.

7. What are the judging criteria for the SkillsFuture Fellowships?

The SkillsFuture Fellowships are open to all Singapore Citizens with at least 10 years of working experience in the same (or related) industry or job function. The candidate should possess deep skills in relevant areas of professional and technical expertise, demonstrate a strong personal commitment to lifelong learning and mastery of domain, and contribute significantly to the skills development of others.

B. Questions on Award Monies

1. How can I use the monetary award from SkillsFuture Fellowships?

The monetary award can be used to defray out-of-pocket training expenses incurred in the pursuit of skills mastery through a broad range of skills deepening and upgrading programmes.

2. What are the types of training programmes supported under SkillsFuture Fellowships?

The SkillsFuture Fellowships can be used to support a wide range of skills deepening and upgrading options. The training programmes, which may be conducted locally or overseas, should lead to the acquisition of new skills and knowledge which will add value to the career development of individuals. Applicants should indicate the training programme(s) in their training plan when submitting the application.

SkillsFuture Fellowships Frequently Asked Questions

3. My total training costs are less than $10,000. Can I still apply for SkillsFuture Fellowships?
