New Female Fatwa Committee Members:

Ustazah Dr Siti Nur 'Alaniah	Ustazah Dr Siti Nur 'Alaniah is a capable, experienced, and well-respected religious leader. She is well-trained in Muslim law and had served as the Fatwa Associate Members for 12 years. She also served in other notable positions, such as Research Fellow at MUIS, where she examines contemporary family issues in Singapore's multi-religious context. She has also contributed significantly to defence institutions through her five-year voluntary service with MINDEF and membership on the Board of Visitors to SAF Detention Barracks. She has a PHD in educational philosophy and psychology. Her combination of academic excellence and practical experience in religious affairs makes her well-qualified to serve as a member of the new Legal Committee.
Ustazah Dr Sakinah Saptu	Ustazah Dr Sakinah Saptu is a distinguished Islamic scholar who brings valuable academic rigour and practical experience in religious administration and jurisprudence, will enrich the Fatwa Committee's deliberations through her expertise. Ustazah Dr Sakinah Saptu has served in the Fatwa Committee for 6 years as a Fatwa Associate Member. Ustazah Dr Sakinah

	Saptu contributes specialised knowledge in Quranic and Hadith studies with comprehensive academic credentials. Her qualifications make her well qualified to address complex religious matters affecting the Muslim community.
