My Ramadan Booklet 2026

Wisdom in action

This Ramadan, let us grow by learning from the Quran, following Prophet Muhammad's s.a.w. example, and make good choices that show kindness, patience, and love for Allah s.w.t. every day.

Alhamdulillah, we are excited to enter Ramadan 1447H/2026 with another issue of My Ramadan Booklet. It is a tool for parents and teachers to inspire young Muslims to fast, pray tarawih, read the Quran, and grow as individuals.

Packed with interactive activities, tracking charts, and meaningful exercises, this booklet encourages children aged 5-10 years old to live out the lessons they learn. Every page is an opportunity to practise what we learn and grow closer to Allah s.w.t.

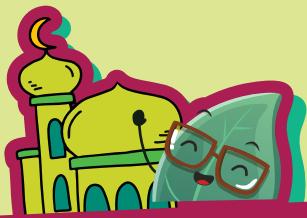

Let us make this Ramadan a journey of discovery and growth, filled with beautiful deeds together!

Identify good Manners

In Islam, being kind and respectful to others is very important. Prophet Muhammad s.a.w. taught us that good manners are a part of being a good Muslim.

Being kind and respectful is like a gift to others. It pleases Allah s.w.t., makes others feel happy and loved, and helps us build strong and friendly relationships.

Tick the good manners as shown in the picture.
(There can be more than 1 answer)

When Ustaz/ah is teaching, we should:

- Interrupt and talk amongst ourselves
- Listen attentively and show respect
- Play with friends

We help others:

- To uplift and care for those in need
- By giving unusable items
- As Allah loves those who share

When I need to speak while my teacher is teaching:

- I will raise my hand
- I interrupt often
- I shout and say what I need

When I see an elderly without a seat:

- I ignore her
- I pretend to sleep
- I offer my seat especially if they need it more than me

Our Mosque Based Kindergartens help instil good manners and values in children from an early age, nurturing well-rounded young Muslims!
(see page 16)

Match the food!

Allah s.w.t. mentions many kinds of food in the Quran — fruits, vegetables, and even drinks — as reminders of His blessings and lessons for us.

Match the food images to the correct words and appreciate how the Quran teaches us to be thankful for the food we enjoy every day.

Take your time, think carefully, and see how many you can match correctly!

Tajwid Tidbits: I 'Nun' with a SMILE!

Did you know?

There are times, 'nun' likes to hide, join hands, or change into a new sound!

Allah s.w.t. gave every letter a special way to sound, and some letters behave in a unique way when 'nun' (ن) meets them. Come and explore some of the rules and why they make your recitation sound smoother!

Learn their special tricks!

* Ikhfa' – The shy 'nun'

Think of 'nun' as shy: it hides its sound and says 'hmmm...' through the nose.

Tip:
Put your finger near your nose – you should feel it buzz!

* Idgham – The hugging 'nun'

Think of 'nun' as friendly – it joins hands with the next letter and becomes one happy sound.

Tip:
Smile & blend the letter together smoothly.

* Iqlab – The disguised 'nun'

Think of 'nun' as a master of disguise – it puts on a 'mim mask' & changes into mim.

Tip:
Listen carefully – it sounds like a soft 'MM' sound.

Try it out!

Ikhfa'

لَنْ تُقْبَلَ
يُنْفِقُونَ

The most blessed nights of Ramadan Tahajjud (Night prayers)

Before the world wakes up and everyone is still dreaming, there is a special time to have quiet conversations with Allah s.w.t.

These gentle night prayers, called tahajjud, are a peaceful time to talk to Allah s.w.t. and feel closer to Him.

Narrated Abu Huraira:

Allah's Messenger s.a.w. said, "Our Lord, the Blessed, the Superior, comes every night down on the nearest Heaven to us when the last third of the night remains, saying: 'Is there anyone to invoke Me, so that I may respond to invocation? Is there anyone to ask Me, so that I may grant him his request? Is there anyone seeking My forgiveness, so that I may forgive him?'"

Here are some duas you can recite during your tahajjud:

رب اغفرني ولوالدي وارحمهمما كمما ربياني صغيرا

Rabbighirli waliwalidayya warhamhuma kamaa rabbayani saghira

"O Allah! Forgive me and my parents, and bestow Your Mercy upon them both, as they brought me up when I was young."

اللهم إني أسألك علمنا نافعا
ورزقا طيباً وعماً مُتقبلا

Allahumma inni as'ala ukalma ilman naafi'an, wa rizqan tayyiban, wa 'amalan mutaqabbalan

"O Allah, I ask You for beneficial knowledge, goodly provision, and acceptable deeds"
