Annex A: MUIS Awards 2026 recipients

Award	Recipient
Anugerah Jasa Cemerlang	1. Mr Hamzah Abdul Mutalib Founding Member, Casa Raudha; Executive Council Member, LBKM Mr Hamzah Abdul Mutalib has dedicated 49 years of voluntary service across three organisations since 1977. He was instrumental in establishing Casa Raudha, Singapore's first Muslim-run crisis shelter for victims of domestic violence, and strengthening its governance and sustainability. He also championed its Prevention, Protection and Restoration framework, with its anti-domestic violence awareness campaigns reaching over one million individuals online. His contributions extend to supporting converts and humanitarian initiatives overseas.
Anugerah Jasa Bakti	1. Mr Assan Masood Former President, Singapore Tenkasi Muslim Welfare Society Mr Assan Masood has devoted over 50 years to community welfare, mosque governance and education. As President of the Singapore Tenkasi Muslim Welfare Society, he championed educational opportunities and socio-economic upliftment for the Tenkasi Muslim community. He also strengthened partnerships with organisations including MENDAKI, MUIS, the Federation of Indian Muslims and SINDA to support the wider community.
	2. Haji Juhari Bin Haji Mohtar Chairman, Masjid Tasek Utara (2017–2026) Haji Juhari Bin Haji Mohtar has devoted 35 years of voluntary service to Masjid Tasek Utara. During the COVID-19 pandemic, he helped introduce digital platforms to sustain religious learning and engagement, reaching over 360 congregants. He also promoted interfaith understanding and community partnerships, strengthening the mosque's role in bringing communities together.

Singapore Islamic Hub. 273 Braddell Road. Singapore 579702 Tel: 6359 1199
www.muis.gov.sg /muis.sg

Award	Recipient
	3. Mdm Jummaida Rusdon Board Member, PPIS; Chair, Oaks Plus Limited Mdm Jummaida Rusdon has contributed to Singapore's early childhood education sector for over three decades. As founder of Learning Vision and former CEO of Busy Bees Asia, she helped advance professional standards and child-centred education. Through PPIS and Oaks Plus Limited, she continues to support vulnerable families in the Muslim community, particularly single mothers.
	4. Dr Mustafa Izzuddin Academic; Community and Interfaith Leader Dr Mustafa Izzuddin has contributed 30 years of voluntary service to youth development, education and interfaith engagement, impacting more than 15,000 young people and their families. His contributions span mosque governance and community welfare, alongside international recognition for his work, including his designation as a global expert by the United Nations Alliance of Civilizations.
	5. Mr Shaik Mohammad Iqbal Shaik Hussain Former Member, Board of Governors, Madrasah Al-Arabiah Al-Islamiah Mr Shaik Mohammad Iqbal Shaik Hussain has dedicated 26 years to Islamic education and community development. He played a key role in guiding Madrasah Al-Arabiah Al-Islamiah's transition into the Joint Madrasah System and supported the development of Muhammadiyah Islamic College. His contributions also extend to community welfare and expanding educational opportunities for students.

Singapore Islamic Hub. 273 Braddell Road. Singapore 579702 Tel: 6359 1199
www.muis.gov.sg /muis.sg

Award	Recipient
	6. Dr Sueziani Binte Zainudin Senior Consultant Endocrinologist; Board Member, Diabetes Singapore Dr Sueziani Binte Zainudin has contributed 12 years of voluntary service, combining her medical expertise with the religious needs of Muslim patients. She pioneered the Diabetes Education and Medication Adjustment in Ramadan (DEAR) programme, helping individuals with diabetes manage their health while observing Ramadan. Her work has contributed to advancing Ramadan-related healthcare practices locally and internationally.
Anugerah Belia Harapan	1. Miss Hairawanie Binte Hairudinsah Founder, Salaam Sports; Vice Chairperson, Jazari Engineers Network Youth Wing Miss Hairawanie Binte Hairudinsah is a mechanical engineer who champions youth empowerment and faith-sensitive community engagement. She founded Salaam Sports in 2023, providing Muslim youth with regular opportunities to participate in sports within a supportive environment. Through the Jazari Engineers Network Youth Wing, she also advocates for greater opportunities for Muslim women in engineering.
	2. Ustaz Muhammad Khidir Bin Haji Mohamed Ibrahim Programme Lead, Santunan Emas; Advocate, Singapore Deaf Muslim Committee Ustaz Muhammad Khidir Bin Haji Mohamed Ibrahim champions inclusive religious education and community support for deaf Muslims, seniors and caregivers. Through his advocacy, he has helped make religious learning more accessible. As Programme Lead for Santunan Emas, engaging more than 2,400 participants weekly through physical and online programmes since October

Singapore Islamic Hub. 273 Braddell Road. Singapore 579702 Tel: 6359 1199
www.muis.gov.sg /muis.sg

Award	Recipient
	2024. His contributions also extend to interfaith engagement.
	3. Miss Nuryanee Anisah Binte Mohamed Noor CEO and Co-Founder, Commenhers LLP Miss Nuryanee Anisah Binte Mohamed Noor is a social entrepreneur who combines sustainability with livelihood opportunities for underserved communities. Since co-founding Commenhers in 2019, she has raised $90,000, upcycled over 12,000 kg of textile waste and created income opportunities for more than 110 beneficiaries through partnerships with over 100 organisations.

Singapore Islamic Hub. 273 Braddell Road. Singapore 579702 Tel: 6359 1199
www.muis.gov.sg /muis.sg