

World Cities Summit 2026

Connect with our global network of leaders and experts this June in Singapore. Check out the latest updates on the WCS Website:

- Explore the comprehensive programme of sessions and masterclasses at WCS 2026.
- We are pleased to welcome our new sponsors and partners!

ACT Now! Register for your Conference Delegate Pass now with our Early Bird promotion!

Register Here →

Details Here →

WEBINAR

City Network for the Lee Kuan Yew World City Prize Webinar Series – From Industrial Decline to Urban Renaissance: What Cities Can Learn From Bilbao’s Transformation

The lecture by Asier Abaunza Robles, Councillor Delegate of the Bilbao City Council, examined Bilbao’s transformation from an industrial port city facing economic and environmental decline in the 1980s to a globally recognised model of urban regeneration. The webinar concluded with a Q&A session moderated by Mr Eugene Lau, Director of the Architecture and Urban Design, Industry and Innovation, Urban Redevelopment Authority, Singapore.

Revisit the webinar →

PAGES

Singapore Cooperation Programme – Sustainable Financing of Cities

Organised under the Ministry of Foreign Affairs’ Singapore Cooperation Programme Training Award (SCPTA), CLC recently held a capability development course on Sustainable Financing of Cities, welcoming fellow government officials from Asia, Africa, Europe, the Caribbean and the Pacific region.

3 min | Read →

USS R&I Congress 2026: Leveraging Science and Technology for Healthy and Regenerative Cities

CLC, in collaboration with URA and HDB, organised a session about how science and technology can inform the planning and design of more liveable, healthy and regenerative cities in the context of global trends.

5 min | Read →

The Future of Downtowns and Heritage Cities: CLC in Mumbai and Ahmedabad

Executive Fellow, Michael Koh, spoke at the 4th edition of the Urban Land Institute India Annual Conference in Mumbai last month, on a panel titled “The Business of Lively Downtowns”, sharing how future CBDs should be connected, distinctive, integrative, vibrant, and responsive.

4 min | Read →

Festival of Innovation Panel Session: Designing Human-Centric Cities and Services

Research Director Elaine Tan spoke at a panel on “Designing Human-Centric Cities and Services” at GovInsider’s annual Festival of Innovation earlier this month, highlighting how CLC’s research and initiatives reflect a broader approach to human-centric cities, recognising that spaces and communities do shape and support residents’ well-being.

5 min | Read →

Urban Solutions

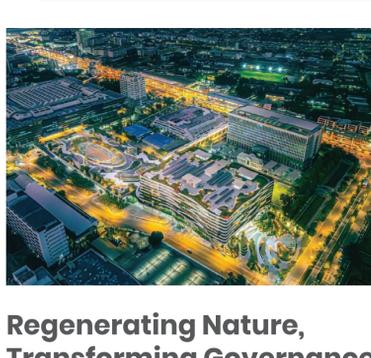

Issue #27: Resilience and Regeneration II

Advancing Climate Action Through Global and Local Policies

Shirley Rodrigues, former London Deputy Mayor for Environment and Energy (2016–2024), Chair of the Breathe Cities Advisory Committee, Our Common Air Commissioner, and member of the Board of C40 Cities, explores how cities can lead by example, scaling local solutions to drive sustainable behaviours worldwide.

10 min | Read →

Regenerating Nature, Transforming Governance: Redeveloping Thailand’s Government Complex

Kotchakorn Voraakhom, Founder of Landprocess and the Porous City Network, shares how Thailand’s Government Complex was transformed into a sustainable and people-centric hub, aligned with broader national decarbonisation targets.

7 min | Read →

