

Children's Learning and Development of Reading Skills (From Birth to K2)

Reading Knowledge and Skill	Infancy End of K
Alphabetic Knowledge	 Start to recognise letters Start to recognise upper and lower case letters' shape, name and sound Start to decode unfamiliar words Recognise all letters shapes and names Recognise most of the letter sounds Start to decode unfamiliar words
Phonological Awareness	 Hear sounds in the language Start to recognise words, syllables and some rhymes Recognise words and syllables in spoken sentences Have greater familiarity with rhyming words Start to blend or segment sounds in words they hear Start to recognise beginning and ending sounds
Word Recognition and Emergent Reading	Start to recognise environmental print (e.g. "Stop" sign) Recognise the name they are called by Recognise all letters' shapes and names Recognise most of the letter sounds Start to decode unfamiliar words
	Build vocabulary of familiar words and sight words (e.g. nouns, verbs, articles, prepositions, adjectives, adverbs, contractions)
Comprehension	Listen to songs, rhymes, poems and stories and responds with gestures and/or facial expressions - Ask and respond to questions about what has been read or heard - Start to sequence events in what they have been read to - Dramatise a scene or character from a frequently read/sung song, rhyme, poem and story - Predict the ending or suggest alternative ending - Sequence the events in what they have been read to - Talk about and comment on characters, the scene or ideas from what they have been read to