

DIFFERENT STORIES, ONE HEARTBEAT

We come from different stories
But here we start anew
Fresh page of a different chapter
There's lots of things that we can do

Before you put your pen to paper
Just look around and see There's friends to make and risks to take
Before we write our destiny

Every story goes one page at a time
And we've got years to write our own
Our stories may be different
But our hearts are not alone

Every heart goes one beat at a time
In synchrony we are complete
Hand in hand we share
Different stories
One heartbeat

An adventure lies ahead
With twists along the way
In all that we do we'll always push through
With love we'll seize the day

Every story goes one page at a time
And we've got years to write our own
Our stories may be different
But our hearts are not alone

Every heart goes one beat at a time
In synchrony we are complete
Hand in hand we share
Different stories

One heart beat our stories
Come together to form a tapestry
One heart beat our hearts free
Together we beat for you and me

Every story goes one page at a time
And we've got years to write our own
Our stories may be different
But our hearts are not alone

Every heart goes one beat at a time
In synchrony we are complete
Hand in hand we share
Different stories
One heartbeat
