Welcome to our Lasallian Family!

ST JOSEPH'S Institution JUNIOR

IN SINGAPORE

- De La Salle School
- St Anthony's Primary School
- St Joseph's Institution Junior
- St Joseph's Institution (Independent)
- St Joseph's Institution International
- St Patrick's School
- St Stephen's School
- LASALLE College of the Arts

OUR LASALLIAN MISSION

- Enabling our children in a Lasallian community
- to learn how to learn,
- to learn how to live,
- to become men of integrity

- and men for others.

OUR LASALLIAN VALUES

FAITH. SERVICE. COMMUNITY.

ST JOSEPH'S Institution JUNIOR

What makes this Lasallian family special?

A culture and values that draw from a long history of Service and Others-centeredness

- St John Baptist De La Salle is the founding father of Lasallian Brother Schools that includes more than 1,000 institutions worldwide now

- In the 1600s, at a time when children were disregarded and considered the least important members of society.

What makes this Lasallian family special?

A culture and values that draw from a long history of Service and Others-centeredness

- At tremendous sacrifice, established a school for those who could not afford education – to lift them up and provide a path to earn a livelihood.
- Founded on a concept of fraternity and community – that teachers and students were fellow brothers of faith
- Approach that became the foundation of French public education

THE LASALLIAN HERITAGE

Lasallian Movement in Singapore

- In this same spirit, the Lasallian Christian Brothers came to Singapore in 1852 to establish a school for underprivileged children.

- With the demand for education – established a series of Lasallian schools in an era where resources were few

The Lasallian Ethos and Values

We have access to education today only because then, there were people who believed in it enough to sacrifice their life to education and to our children, at a time when Singapore had no resources to offer.

Now we are flourishing as an education system, and Lasallian schools no longer face the difficulties of the past – but this spirit of Faith, Service and Community is what we hope to keep alive

The Lasallian Ethos and Values

- In our day to day, it looks like a sense of brotherhood
  - Amongst our teachers, and we hope you all as well, as new incoming parents
  - And of course, amongst our boys – opportunities to build memories with their schoolmates that they will cherish

Passing on a Love for School: P1-P4 Buddy Programme

The Lasallian Ethos and Values

It looks like modelling and helping our boys to catch the heart of Service

We hope as we provide opportunities for Service, we will ignite in our boys the heart to serve others.

We want them to know they are blessed, and that it is important to give out of the much we have received.

ST JOSEPH'S Institution JUNIOR

The Lasallian Ethos and Values

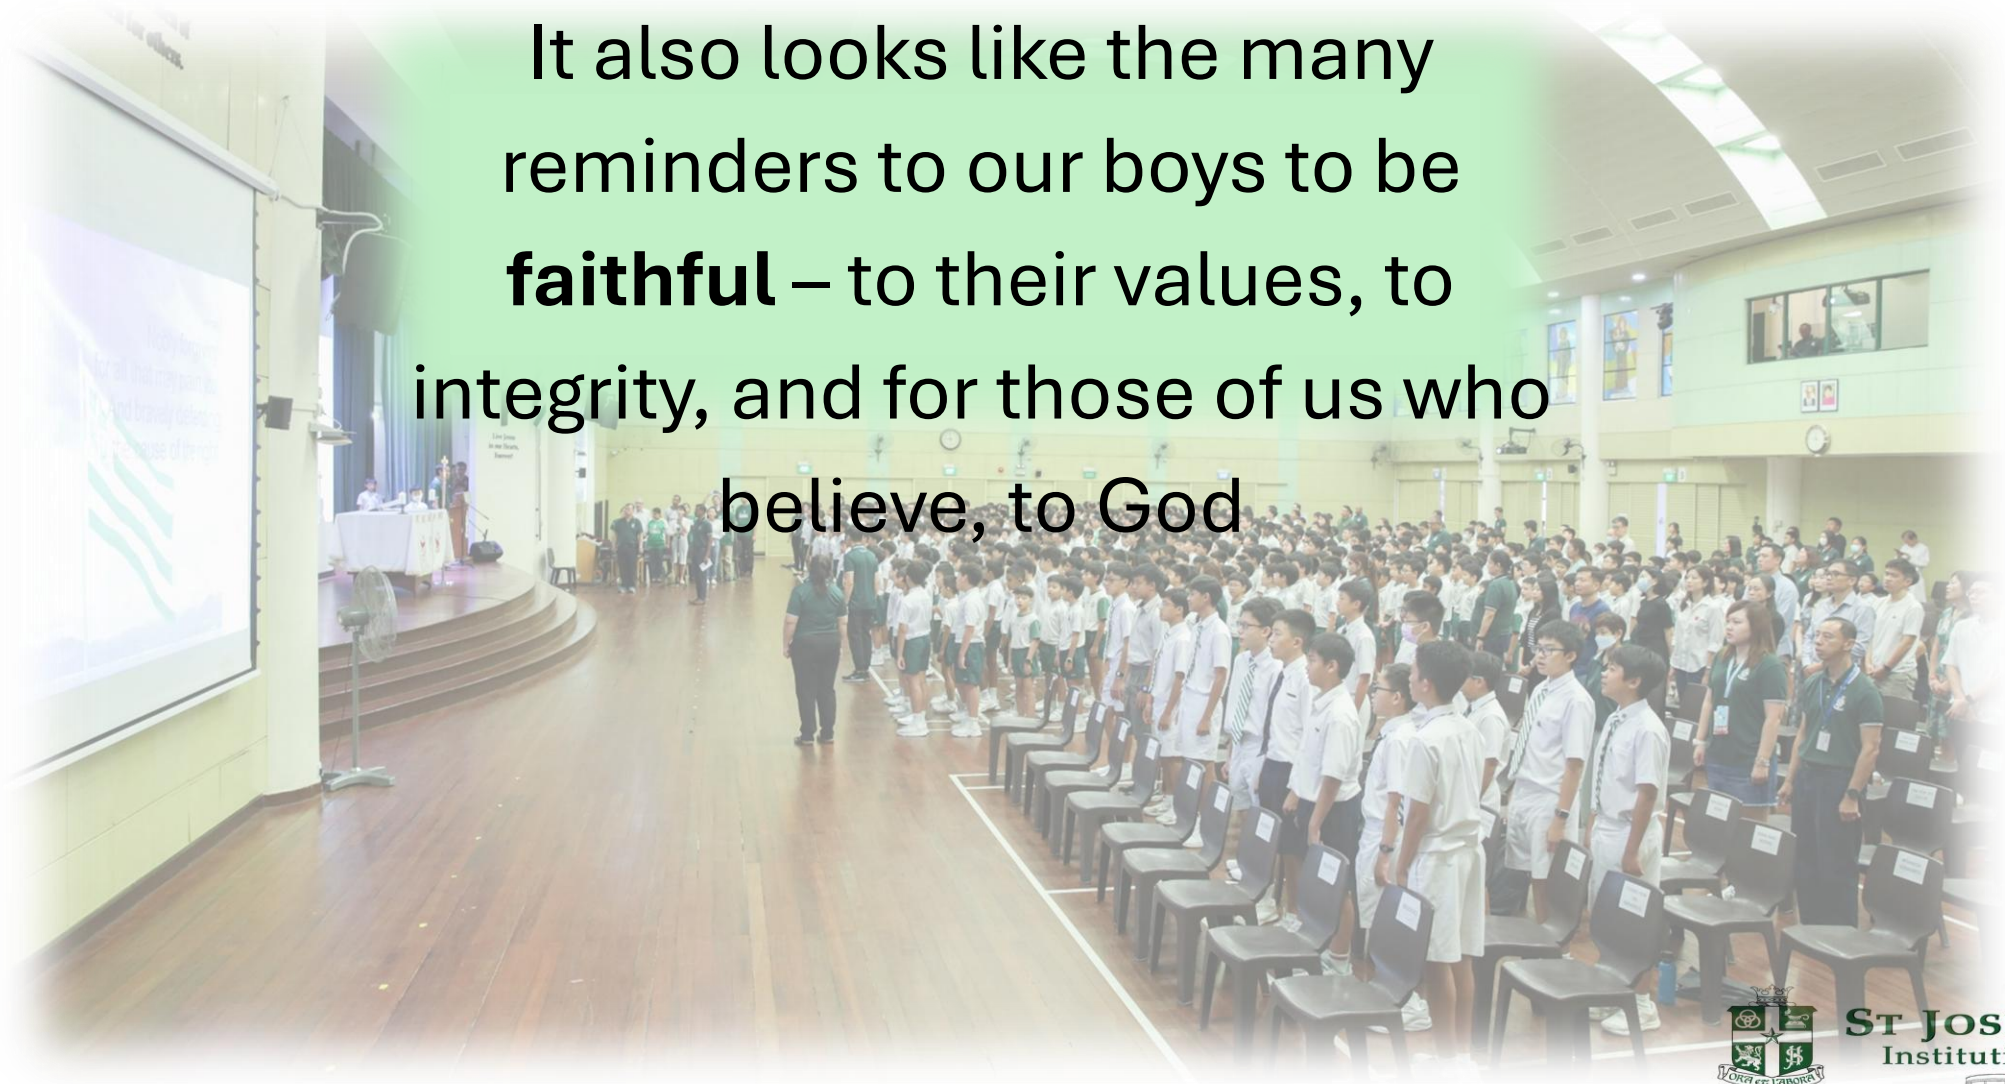

Beyond programmes and activities that provide our boys opportunities to serve

Our PTA actively lives this out across the school year through many events and programmes for our boys

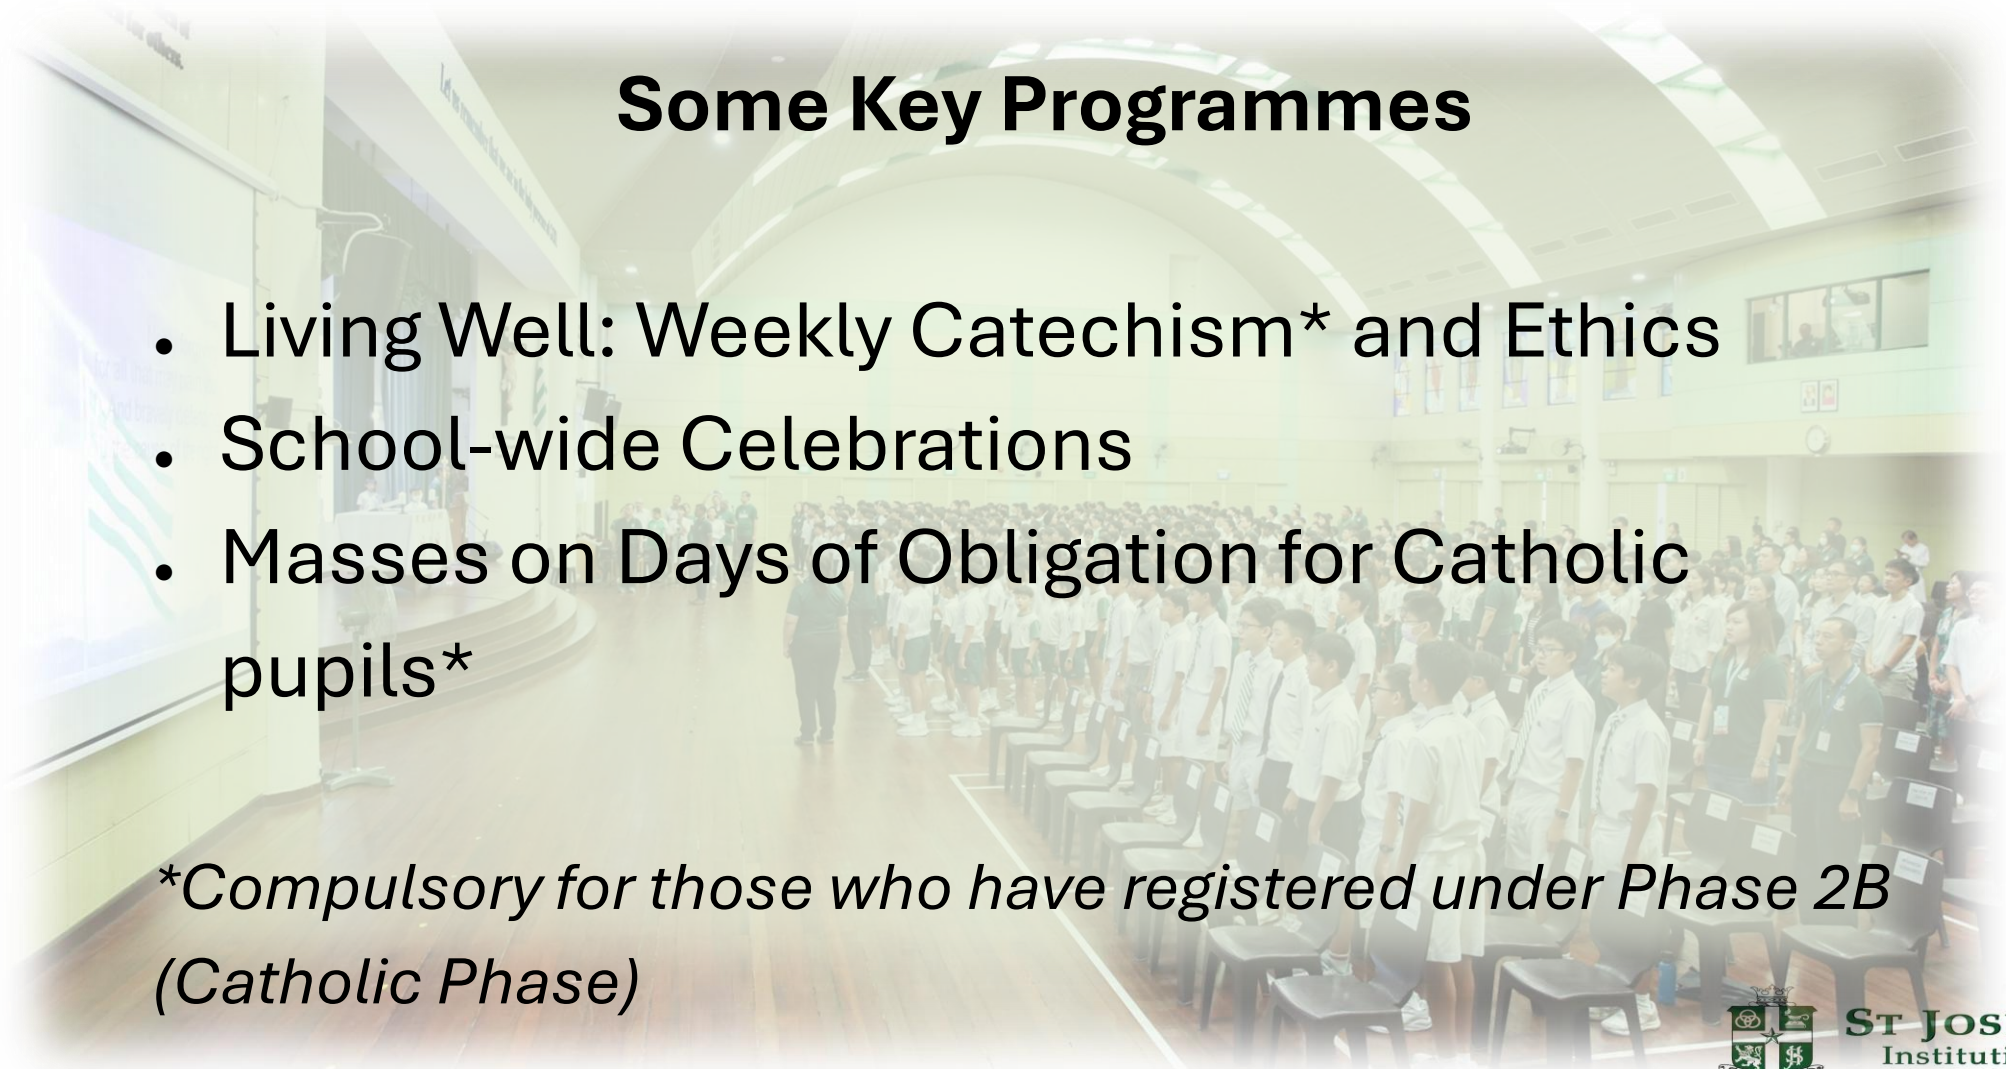

The Lasallian Ethos and Values

It also looks like the many reminders to our boys to be faithful – to their values, to integrity, and for those of us who believe, to God

The Lasallian Ethos and Values

Some Key Programmes

- Living Well: Weekly Catechism* and Ethics
- School-wide Celebrations
- Masses on Days of Obligation for Catholic pupils*

Compulsory for those who have registered under Phase 2B (Catholic Phase)*
