What will our children remember?

We may not remember every worksheet or every school circular.

But our children may remember whether Dad showed up.

Not perfectly. Not for everything. But often enough to matter.

What Dads for Life @ FPS is here for

Singapore's National Fathers Movement

Initiated by Centre for Fathering (Non-Profit) since 2009

Grow as fathers

Create a network of fathers to share and grow in our fatherhood journey.

Create father-child moments

Provide platforms and opportunities for Father and Child Bonding.

1. To inspire, mobilise and involve fathers to become good influences in their children's lives

2. To empower more fathers to be better role models and an enduring inspiration to their children.

You don’t need to join everything.

Just start by showing up for one thing.

One event

Come along when the timing works for your family.

One walk

A simple way to move, talk and connect.

One kopi

Meet a few other dads. No big agenda required.

One activity

Create one shared father-child moment together.

FRONTIER PRIMARY

Ways to connect in 2027

Father-child activities

Simple opportunities to create shared memories together.

Dads' kopi / brunch

Casual time to meet other fathers and build relationships.

Walks / movement

Low-pressure ways to get moving and connect.

School moments

Simple opportunities for dads to show up visibly together.

DSL events

Larger shared experiences across the school year.

You do not need every format to work for you.
You only need to find one or two ways that fit your family and your season of life.

FRONTIER PRIMARY

Six years from now…

What do you hope your child remembers about Dad?

“Dad was around.”

Presence matters.

“Dad made time.”

Even when life was busy.

“We had our moments.”

Small memories add up.

We cannot be there for everything.
But we can be intentional about showing up for a few more moments.
