Helping Singaporeans Start and Raise Families with Confidence

Enhanced childcare leave, financial, preschool and housing support

Announced at National Day Rally 2026

MORE CHILDCARE LEAVE (CCL)

Number of Children aged 12 years and below	CCL Days Per Working Parent Per Year	CCL Days for Both Working Parents Combined Per Year
1 child	8 days	16 days
2 children	10 days	20 days
3 or more children	12 days	24 days

- This is an increase from 6 days (youngest child aged 0–6) and 2 days (youngest child aged 7–12).
- All child-related leave will be fully paid for by the Government going forward.

MORE FINANCIAL SUPPORT

Every eligible Singapore Citizen child will receive around $70,000 of direct financial support from birth to age 17, regardless of birth order.

SG Child Support Package*
Baby Gift (at birth, in 2 tranches)	$10,000
Child Credits (ages 1-16)	$32,000 ($2,000/year)
Child Development Account (CDA): First Step Grant + Government co-matching	Up to $10,000
Post-Secondary Education Account (PSEA) top-up at age 17	$10,000
MediSave Grant for Newborns	$5,000
Annual Edusave contributions across primary and secondary school	About $2,500

*This will replace the Baby Bonus Scheme and Large Families Scheme

MORE HELP FOR LARGER FAMILIES

(three or more children)

- The current $5,000 Large Family MediSave Grant helps with healthcare expenses
- Additional support for transport expenses
- MND is studying additional housing support

MORE AFFORDABLE AND ACCESSIBLE PRESCHOOL AND STUDENT CARE

By 2030, full-day fees at Government-supported centres will be reduced to:
- ▸ $150 per month for childcare
- ▸ $300 per month for infant care

Full preschool subsidies will be extended to families with Singapore Citizen children, regardless of the applicant's working status

Expanded network of Government-supported preschool operators

Increased capacity, quality and affordability of after-school student care

MORE HOUSING SUPPORT

From the February 2027 sales exercise, first-timer families with or expecting children will receive one additional ballot chance for each Singapore Citizen child aged 18 and below.

These enhancements are the first set of recommendations from the Marriage & Parenthood Reset Workgroup.

More details to come.

The Workgroup will release a full report in early 2027.
