

Singapore National
Eye Centre
SingHealth

Basic Ophthalmic Nursing Course

Course Information

Target Learners	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Enrolled Nurses• Registered Nurses
Class Size (Maximum number of participants)	20

Contact Person

Singapore National Eye Centre
31 Third Hospital Avenue,
Bowyer Block A Level 2,
Nursing Administration Office,
Singapore 168753

Ms Sharon Lui (Manager)
63228398

sharon.lui.s.f@sneec.com.sg

Course Description

This course focuses on basic medical and nursing aspects of ophthalmology with practical demonstrations on eye examination techniques. It aims to educate participants on the common eye conditions, treatment, management and patient education. To provide participants with the basic ophthalmic knowledge necessary to meet the healthcare needs of patients with a variety of ophthalmic disorders enabling them to function as an effective member in the ophthalmic team, contributing towards optimal care of patients.

Course Objectives

Upon completion of this training, learners will be able to:

- Identify the common acute and chronic ophthalmic conditions and their signs and symptoms
- Understand the management of acute and chronic ophthalmic conditions including ocular emergency
- Discuss the basic patient education on common eye diseases/disorders, eye surgery pre and post-operative care
- Discuss the ophthalmic care within their scope of practice

Course Structure

Assessment:

- Theory Assessment

Mode of Training

- Online E-Learning