

DIABETIC FOOT SCREENING

20 NOVEMBER 2025

8.30AM TO 5.30PM

ANG MO KIO POLYCLINIC

COURSE FEE

$340 (EXCL GST)

This course aims to provide primary care nurses and relevant healthcare professionals with essential knowledge and skills to perform diabetic foot screening and provide effective patient education.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

On completion of the course the learner will be able to:

- ▶ Identify common diabetic foot problems.
- ▶ Categorise risk levels according to NHGP policy and guidelines.
- ▶ Provide foot care education to diabetic patients and caregivers based on Institution policy and guidelines.
- ▶ Make appropriate referral to podiatrist or doctor based on the standard of foot care.
- ▶ Perform diabetic foot screening, Ankle Brachial Index (ABI) and Toe Pressure according to organization policy and protocol.

ASSESSMENT METHODOLOGY

- Online theory assessment

MODE OF TRAINING

- Blended

CERTIFICATION

Certificate of Participation will be awarded for learners who have met the following criteria:

- Completed pre-course e-learning and MCQs,
- Attended the face-to-face classroom session, and
- Completed learning reflection and evaluation via online

TARGET AUDIENCE

- Enrolled Nurses and Registered Nurses
- Healthcare workers who are required to perform diabetic foot screening

TRAINERS

Radiance Fong
Senior Podiatrist
NHGP

Chang Xiaopei
Assistant Nurse Clinician
NHGP

Rajoo Thilaga Rani
Senior Staff Nurse
NHGP

By attending this event, you consent and grant Primary Care Academy c/o National Healthcare Group Pte Ltd ("NHG"), its affiliates and service providers the right to collect, use, and/or disclose your likeness, image and/or voice for event publicity and/or other related purposes, and confirm that you have read and agreed to the terms set out at <https://for.sg/personal-data-collection-at-event>."

Max 4 CPE Points
will be awarded
(Pending Approval)

<https://for.sg/pcackms>

