

Renal Course for Nurses: Peritoneal Dialysis (PD)

Comprehensive 42-hour certificate course by Ang Mo Kio – Thye Hua Kwan Hospital, equipping nurses with specialized skills in Peritoneal Dialysis (PD). Combines theoretical e-learning, simulation-based practicals, and on-the-job training for safe, independent patient management.

COURSE ESSENTIALS

Course Overview

A 2-day training program for RNs and ENs focusing on PD principles, catheter care, and complication management.

Entry Requirements

Open to RNs and ENs post-probation with a minimum of 6 months local clinical experience.

Certification

Participants will be awarded a Certificate of Competence upon successful completion of all course requirements.

CURRICULUM & OUTCOMES

Course Modules

Introduction to PD (Anatomy & Principles)

Nursing Management (Monitoring & Emergencies)

Catheter Exit Site Dressing

CAPD – Vantive System

APD – Vantive System

Learning Outcomes

- Nurses will master PD function, troubleshoot clinical issues,
- Manage emergencies, and
- Demonstrate proficiency in Vantive CAPD/APD systems.

DURATION & COST

Theory
(Self-directed + Face-to-Face)

13 Hours

Practical
(Simulation + Assessment)

9 Hours

On-The-Job Training (OJT)

20 Hours

Fee: $774
(prior to GST)

CONTACT DETAILS

Senior Clinical Instructor : Yee Wai Yei

(waiyei_yee@amkh.org.sg)