

DIABETIC RETINAL PHOTOGRAPHY

4 & 7 November 2025

8.30am to 5.30pm

Ang Mo Kio Polyclinic

Course Fee:
$635 (w/o GST)

This course aims to equip nurses with the essential knowledge to perform Diabetic Retinal Photography (DRP) for persons with diabetes.

Learning Outcomes

On completion of the course the learner will be able to:

- State the common eye conditions related to diabetes & its management
- Perform history taking
- Explain the assessment before DRP
- Explain indications, contraindications & precautions for pupil dilation
- State the critical points in capturing good retinal image
- Provide patient education related to DRP
- Explain the result management after the DRP procedure

Assessment Methodology

- Online theory assessment

Mode of training

- Blended

Certification

Certificate of Participation will be awarded for learners who met the following criteria:

- Completed the pre-course quiz.
- Attended BOTH virtual/classroom session and skill practical session.
- Completed learning reflection and evaluation via online.

Target Audience

- Registered Nurses
- Enrolled Nurses
- Healthcare workers who are required to perform DRP service

Trainers

Dr Ding Si Yan
Family Physician,
Associate Consultant, NHGP

Teoh Qi Xian
Senior Staff Nurse, NHGP

Goh Poh Suan
Senior Nurse Clinician, NHGP

Jessica Goh Shi Qi
Senior Staff Nurse, NHGP

By attending this event, you consent and grant Primary Care Academy c/o National Healthcare Group Pte Ltd ("NHG"), its affiliates and service providers the right to collect, use, and/or disclose your likeness, image and/or voice for event publicity and/or other related purposes, and confirm that you have read and agreed to the terms set out at <https://for.sg/personal-data-collection-at-event>."

ooo

MAX 8 CPE POINTS
WILL BE AWARDED
(PENDING APPROVAL)

