

Sec 2 Subject Combination Literature in English (elective)

19 August 2026

2 G3

MAYFLOWER SECONDARY SCHOOL

MIGHTY IN THOUGHT AND DEED

ZEST FOR LIFE · CURIOUS MIND · GENEROUS SPIRIT

“To be or Not to be, that is the question”

Prerequisites: Do you have what it takes to be a good Lit student?

- Have a good command of English
- Have a passion and interest about exploring relationship and societal issues
- Sensitive to the world around you and reflect confidently
- Presenting persuasive arguments through speaking and writing
- Appreciate the analysis of characters, relationships and themes
- Read widely and Annotation of set text
- Research skills to extend and connect to other types of similar readings

WHY STUDY LITERATURE?

1. Benefit of knowledge

- valuable insights - how other cultures work in the varied context
- appreciating the inter-connected world of today.
- better understanding of other related works similar or different to set text
- Sound analysis of text and

2. Benefit of a disciplined and critical mind

- Cultivate minds to question assumptions
- Critique the opinion of others in a respectful manner
- analyse text in a discerning way
- construct own interpretations of the text
- Find his/her voice and shares with conviction

3. Benefit of operating in a complex world

- Engage in wider humanity issues
- emphasises appreciation and respect for varied response and alternate perspectives
- develops empathy /understanding of relationships
- Collaborative skills to work with people from diverse background.

Syllabus 2262: Literature In English

Elective Lit (1h 40min Paper)

Set text: To Kill a Mockingbird by Harper Lee

Unseen Poetry

Question Type: Essay and Passage based

Exploring Set Text in authentic setting: Learning Journey to market

Literature
Enrichment Workshop