

Level 1 Offences	Possible Consequences	Follow up Support
• Late for school • Late for classes/loitering during class • Unauthorised use of electronic devices during curriculum hours • Leaving class without teacher's permission • Use of offensive language • Not doing assignments • Disruptive behavior in class (minor disruption) • Improper attire and grooming	• Detention • Corrective work • Confiscation of item • Warning • Other appropriate disciplinary action deemed necessary by the school	• Informing parents (Home-School partnership) • RP Conversations • Counselling (SC)
Level 2 Offences	Possible Consequences	Follow up Support
• Smoking / Vaping (usage or possession) • Truancy • Disruptive behavior (affects smooth running of class/events) • Open defiance and/or rudeness • Bullying/Cyber Bullying • Theft • Vandalism • Consuming/possessing/distributing alcohol • Possession of illicit materials • Cheating/assisting to cheat in assessments/tests/exams • Level 1 offences committed repeatedly will be considered a Level 2 offence	All consequences stated in Level 1 and • Internal exclusion • External exclusion • Caning (boys only) • Compensation • Police assistance • Awarded zero marks for cheating/assisting to cheat during assessments/tests/exams • Other appropriate disciplinary action deemed necessary by the school Level 2 offences will be recorded permanently and the student's conduct grade will also be affected.	• Structured monitoring process • Counselling (SC/SHA) • Referral to external agencies e.g. FSC – family therapy

Level 3 Offences	Possible Consequences	Follow up Support
• Assault/ Fighting • Gambling • Arson • Gangsterism (e.g. extortion) • Possession of weapons • Arson • Drug/Inhalant abuse • Other serious offences that do not fall in the above categories • Level 2 offences committed repeatedly will be considered a Level 3 offence	All consequences stated in Levels 1 and 2 and • Transfer out of school • Expulsion • Other appropriate disciplinary action deemed necessary by the school Level 3 offences will be recorded permanently and the student's conduct grade will also be affected.	• Family Guidance Order (FGO)

The school reserves the right to make the final decision for consequences.

Students who commit level 2 and 3 offences may not be considered for leadership positions, camps/overseas trips and school representation. They may also be removed from their positions within school or withdrawn from programmes/competitions.