SUCCESS PROGRAMMED BY ITE

By Joanne Chan

Ryan Tan
 • Graduate of Engineering Analysis at Nanyang Technological University (Graduated in 2008)
 • ITE College West

As ITE, Ryan discovered his interest in Information Technology (IT) and built his skills in this field. He eventually earned a degree in Computer Science from Nanyang Technological University. Today, he is working at one of the most established IT firms in the world.

PROGRAMMING SUCCESS

By Hui-Yen Ling

Aow Jia Rong
 Age: 27
 Occupation: Founder of Ezsofe, a software company
 ITE Courses: Nitec in InfoComm Technology
 Year of Graduation from ITE: 2011
 College: ITE College West

"ITE students are fortunate to have great campus facilities. It is up to them to use these facilities to enrich their learning. I can give you gold but you must recognise its value. Once you know the value, you will be motivated to become better versions of yourself. This mentality applies both to studies and work."
