

Leadership Dispensary

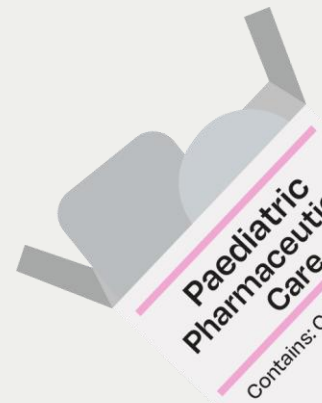

What's your why?

Discovering purpose in your daily practice

It's almost a month into your Leadership journey and self-leadership is becoming second nature to you. This month, we want you to meet someone who figured out how to align his daily work with what actually matters to him.

Marcus kept seeing the same problems in his paediatric unit:

Sounds familiar? Instead of accepting this as “just how things are”, he decided to do something about it.

Inspire Phase

He got clear on his values:

- Child advocacy
- Person-centred care
- Clinical Excellence

“ Provide safe medication management and help families feel confident, not confused. ”

Actualise Phase

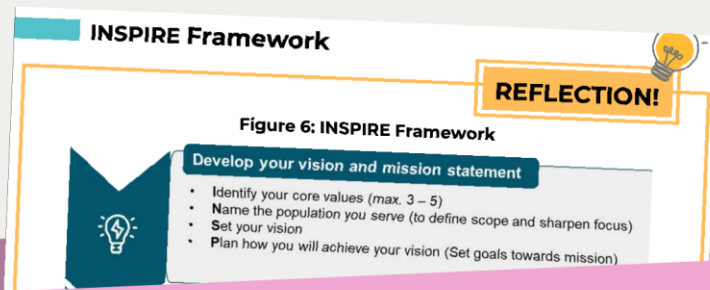

He matched his mission to his work by developing:

The Result

In 18 months, Marcus:

- Secured funding for an integrated paediatric pharmacy service
- Developed comprehensive family education materials
